Re-living old memories!

That our country was freed 62 years ago when the Britishers left is a known fact. But it has also been 62 years since Pervez Musharraf left our country. The former Pakistani President was born in the Neharwali Haveli in Old Delhi's Daryaganj. The Haveli that sprawled 24,800 square (Behind Golcha cinema hall) changed hands in 1946 for a sum of Rs. 562.50. Musharraf often got nostalgic about his old house and had paid a visit to his home in his 2005 India visit.
