OJAS ART

January 24 to February 20, 2020

Ojas is a Sanskrit word and may be inferred as the embodiment of the creative energy of the universe.

Ojas is also described as the nectar of the third eye.

Headed by Anubhav Nath, OJAS ART is a Delhi based art organization bringing forth the newest ideas in the contemporary art space. We endeavour to bring together artists and ideas supported by extensive research and thoughtful dialogues enabling creativity and innovation. We are actively involved in research, consultancy, and advising on building collections.

For the last decade we have been involved in promoting the contemporary Indian Indigenous Arts in a holistic manner involving an annual art award, exhibitions and publications.
